

The GaBi Award 2024

Apply before September 1, 2024
The best PhD thesis

To draw attention to research within drug formulation/drug delivery and biopharmaceutics, the Section of Drug Formulation within the Swedish Pharmaceutical Society has instituted a prize for the best PhD thesis presented at a Swedish university in the last two-year period. The prize is 15 000 SEK.

Anyone who has presented a PhD thesis within drug formulation/drug delivery and biopharmaceutics or a thesis covering principles/methods with application to these areas during the period July 1, 2022 and June 30, 2024 at a Swedish university is eligible to apply. The applicant also has to be a member of the Section of Drug Formulation* within the Swedish Pharmaceutical Society.

The application shall include a justification from the applicant as to why the PhD thesis should be awarded the prize (max 1 A4 page). The justification must also be signed by the supervisor. The justification should describe the following aspects of the thesis: novelty, independence, collaboration with other research groups, the applicability of the thesis, and the scientific significance of the thesis. The justification and complete PhD thesis (summary (“kappa”) and scientific papers/manuscripts) are sent in digital form to Annika Lundvall (annika.lundvall@apotekarsocieteten.se) before September 1, 2024.

For more information, please contact the chairman of the Section of Drug Formulation, Sofia Mattsson (sofia.mattsson@umu.se).

The board of the Section of Drug Formulation within the Swedish Pharmaceutical Society decides who is rewarded the prize. The following aspects will be assessed: project idea, independence, novelty, scientific quality, applicability and scientific significance of the thesis, collaboration with other research groups and the ability to communicate science and results in the summary of the thesis (“kappan”).

*Become a member of the Section of Drug Formulation and the Swedish Pharmaceutical Society at www.apotekarsocieteten.se. The Swedish Pharmaceutical Society (Apotekarsocieteten) is a non-profit organization for professionals engaged in the field of pharmaceuticals.
